Sex Offender Treatment Program

Tillamook County Community Corrections has determined a need to assist financially with costs for those engaged with sex offender treatment. This is an out of pocket expense for offenders and several do not have the financial means to pay for their assessment or required treatment.

Dr. Roger Cook has provided treatment services for Tillamook County for several years. There are approximately twenty-five (25) offenders that are or should be engaged with these treatment services. There is a community safety concern for those who are untreated, and our goal is to remove an immediate financial barrier for this population to readily engage in treatment services.

Dr. Roger Cook uses Cognitive Behavioral Theory (CBT) and has provided an attached letter for a program outline. Dr. Cook will provide Tillamook County Community Corrections a copy of assessments and status reports on a regular basis (quarterly). Ongoing meetings will continue to take place so staff can determine offender's compliance, risk, and needs. In addition, the Probation Officer assigned to this case load will sit in on group check ins at the beginning of treatment.

Dr. Roger Cook will provide Tillamook County Community Corrections an attendance roster each week which will be used to bill the offender's account. Dr. Roger Cook will also provide a detailed invoice to Tillamook County Community Corrections each month. The invoice will indicate the cost of services provided for each individual offender. Tillamook County Community Corrections shall pay the invoice and update the Community Corrections account of each offender receiving treatment. Then, the offender will be responsible for paying off their Community Corrections account much like supervision or urinalysis fees. This will ensure offender accountability and responsibility. This will ensure offender accountability and responsibility. The Community Corrections Sex Offender Supervising Officer will monitor compliance with account payments and will work with the offenders to not have more than a $200.00 owing balance.

Re. Sex Offender Treatment in Tillamook

My program is based on Cognitive Behavioral Theory (CBT), where it is believed that one's thinking precedes one's behaviors and emotions. This type of treatment has been demonstrated to be the most effective for those convicted of a sex offense.

For treatment I use Matthew Ferrara's texts Pathways and Good Lives as well as his handbook for chaperones. Using these texts clients learn to discuss their past behaviors and learn about their beliefs or thoughts that led to those behaviors. They then learn how to challenge these beliefs and the thinking errors that support the continuation of these beliefs/behaviors. They are required to maintain thought journals; relationship logs and other tools that help them understand and become more aware of their beliefs.

The first phase of the program is for the client to complete the first book, Pathways, There are approximately 60 assignments for the client to complete and have signed off. The client is to keep his book and have it signed off; in that manner he is constantly aware of his progress. Depending on the client's motivation this book can be completed in about a year, but on average takes about two years.

After completing the first book (if there are no other issues or concerns) the client is placed on aftercare status and attends groups on a monthly basis. It generally takes about six months to complete this phase.

In addition to the texts, clients are to successfully undergo four polygraph examinations, one of which is a full disclosure while the others are maintenances. They are also to undergo Abel screening around the time of completion of treatment. There is also additional homework such as completing an autobiography based on attachment theory.

Group fees are $50 per group. My maximum fee for individual therapy is $200 an hour. However, I generally charge $150 per hour in Tillamook. I also generally have shorter half hour sessions with clients as needed. These generally are billed at $75. Intakes (with a prior psychosexual) run $200 as it takes more than an hour to sign contracts and address questions and other issues. Those who do not have a psychosexual that can be used undergo minimal assessment as well as the intake process. Minimum fee for this is $400. This assessment includes the use of a historical interview, sex history interview and paperwork and use of the instrument, IORNS. The fee would be adjusted accordingly if other issues need to be addressed (e.g. cognitive, personality or criminal oriented issues). The additional fees are at the rate of $150 an hour and the cost of additional testing materials. Note that clients are required to pay full fee for unexcused absences. The only excused absence is for medical emergency; pre-approved medical appointments or mandatory court appearances.

RDCForensics@live.com

Other fees include court attendance and/or reports that are in addition to routine quarterly reports. The client is responsible for all costs for me to attend court with a minimum fee of $500 and adjusted accordingly at the hourly rate. Note that I have been quite successful at having both the client/attorney and DA/Court agree with me testifying by phone where I do not charge unless it takes up more than 30 minutes of my time.

* Due to COVID19 (and possibly for unseen emergencies or as needed) when I am not able to meet with clients in group face to face I have been working with them telephonically. In doing so, rather than charge $75 for the session I have scaled back to individual telephone sessions to about 15-20 minutes and charged the group fee so as to keep their bills as close to the usual as possible.
