

FILING FOR A STALKING PROTECTIVE ORDER

IMPORTANT NOTE: PROCEDURES FOR GETTING STALKING PROTECTIVE ORDERS VARY FROM COURT TO COURT. CHECK WITH YOUR LOCAL COURT FOR MORE INFORMATION.

WHAT IS A STALKING PROTECTIVE ORDER?

A Stalking Protective Order (SPO) is a court order that tells a person (the “respondent”) to stop contacting you and members of your immediate family and household. If the SPO is granted, the court may also order that the respondent cannot have guns.

You may be able to ask for money damages under the law. See “Do I Need a Lawyer?” below.

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS FOR A STALKING PROTECTIVE ORDER?

- Respondent must have made repeated and unwanted contact with you or a member of your immediate family or household. That contact must cause alarm, fear, or the feeling of being forced to do or not do something against your will.
  - Contacts can be made either directly (by Respondent themselves) or through someone else (for example, having a friend follow you or send messages)
  - “Repeated” means at least 2 incidents within the past 2 years. The incidents do not have to involve the same kind of contact or contact with the same person
  - Contact can mean waiting outside your home, job, or school, following you, letters, phone calls, texts, or emails, or committing a crime against you
  - Contact with you includes any of these actions against a member of your immediate family or household
- The contacts must cause you to reasonably fear for the physical safety of yourself or a member of your immediate family or household

HOW DO I FILL OUT THE PAPERS TO GET A STALKING PROTECTIVE ORDER?

Fill out the Petition for Stalking Protective Order and the Temporary Order on Petition/Citation for Stalking Protective Order. Your court may have a facilitator or advocate available to help you with the forms. They cannot answer legal questions.

BE SURE TO FILL IN THE “COUNTY” SPOT AT THE TOP OF EACH FORM.

- Address and phone number You must give the court a contact mailing address and phone number where the court and sheriff can reach you. Your contact address must be in the state where you live. This information will be public and the respondent will also see it. You do NOT have to use your residential address or phone number. If you don’t want the respondent to know where you live or have your phone number, you can use a safe contact address and contact phone number.
  - The court will assume you receive all communications at the contact address and phone number. Make sure you check both regularly so you know if the court has set hearings or needs information from you. If you do not appear for a hearing, the Judge may change any order or dismiss your case completely.

Complete the Service Information page with information about Respondent. This information will help the sheriff serve the order and judgment if your SPO is granted.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

There is no cost to file for a an SPO

WHERE DO I FILE FOR A STALKING PROTECTIVE ORDER?

File in the county where the respondent lives or where the unwanted contacts happened. File at the Circuit Court courthouse. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov/courts/Pages/default.aspx to find court contact information. NOTE: your address may be closer to a court in a different county, and some towns may be in 2 counties. Call the court or talk to a lawyer if you are not sure where to file.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER I FILL OUT THE PAPERS?

When you file your Petition and Temporary Order, the clerk will tell you when and where to go for your hearing that same day or possibly the next day. Some courts have set times for this type of hearing, while others may have you see a judge immediately. The judge will look over your papers and may ask you questions. If the judge grants you a temporary protective order, court staff will make copies for you. A hearing will be scheduled for the judge to decide whether to make the order permanent.

You will need to have one copy of the temporary order delivered (“served”) to the respondent by a sheriff’s deputy. The court will send the temporary order to a sheriff for service.

You can also have a private process server or any competent<sup>1</sup> adult serve the order, as long as the server lives in the state where the papers are served. You cannot serve the papers yourself. The server must complete a certificate of service and file it with the court. A form for this is in the packet but some servers use their own forms. Talk to the court clerk about ways to get the respondent served. The respondent cannot be punished for violating the order until after service.

WHAT HAPPENS AT THE HEARING?

You must go to all scheduled hearings or the Judge may dismiss the order. If you cannot go to a hearing due to an emergency, call the court clerk right away. It may be helpful to have a lawyer represent you at the hearing, but it is not required. You may be able to appear by phone or video in some courts. Contact the court for more information.

If you are worried about your safety, you can ask for a sheriff’s deputy to be present in the courtroom. Call the court before the hearing.

The purpose of the hearing is to decide if the temporary order will be made permanent, and if so, whether it will change in some way. The judge may decide not to change the order even if both sides agree that they want the same changes.

At the hearing, you must prove that Respondent made repeated, unwanted contact with you or a member of your immediate family or household. You must also prove that you (or a

<sup>1</sup> “Competent” means that a person who can understand, remember, and tell others about an event
Civil Stalking Instructions

member of your immediate family or household) had fears about physical safety and that a reasonable person in your situation would be afraid. Be ready to give your own testimony, call witnesses, and give the judge any evidence you have (such as photos or copies of messages). If the protective order stays in effect, the law prohibits the respondent from having guns.

If the judge makes the order permanent, the court will give you copies of the General Judgment re: Stalking Protective Order. A copy must be served on Respondent if they do not attend the hearing.

HOW LONG DOES A STALKING PROTECTIVE ORDER LAST?

If granted, a General Judgment re: Stalking Protective Order is permanent. Either party may ask the court to dismiss the SPO. If so, a hearing will be scheduled. Be sure the court always has a contact address that you check regularly. If a hearing is scheduled to terminate (end) the SPO, you will receive notice from the court at your contact address.

WHAT CAN I DO IF THE RESPONDENT VIOLATES THE SPO AFTER SERVICE?

You can call the police (call 911). The officer must arrest Respondent if the officer believes a violation happened. If the court finds a violation, Respondent can be fined, put on probation, or put in jail.

A protective order does not guarantee your safety. A domestic violence or sexual assault program can help you take other steps. For information about domestic violence resources, please visit our website - www.courts.oregon.gov/dv

DO I NEED A LAWYER?

You can apply for a SPO without a lawyer. You may want to talk to a lawyer if you have questions about how the law works or what it means. IF YOU WANT TO ASK FOR MONEY DAMAGES AS WELL AS AN SPO, YOU SHOULD SPEAK TO AN ATTORNEY FIRST! Asking for money damages is extremely complicated. Requests must be properly classified and supported. Respondent can ask for a jury trial if you ask for money damages, which may take much longer to resolve.

If you need help finding a lawyer, call the Oregon State Bar's Lawyer Referral Service at 503.684.3763 or 800.452.7636, or go to www.osbar.org/public. If you believe you cannot afford a lawyer, ask court staff about legal services (legal aid) programs that might help you.

You can have a lawyer represent or help you if you want. You may be able to recover attorney fees.

WHAT IF I NEED AN ACCOMMODATION OR AN INTERPRETER?

You must tell the court as soon as possible if:

- you have a disability and need an accommodation, or
- you are unable to speak English and need a foreign language interpreter

Tell the court at least four days before your hearing. Tell the clerk that you have a disability and what type of assistance you need or prefer, or which language you speak.

It is a good idea to carry a copy of the temporary order or judgment with you at all times

1. If you do not own or possess firearms, check the first box and sign the form and file it with the Court and Tillamook County District Attorney’s Office.

2. If you own firearms and wish to surrender them to law enforcement, check the appropriate boxes and sign the form and file it with the Court and Tillamook County District Attorney’s Office. To surrender your firearms to law enforcement, you must immediately call the Tillamook County Sheriff’s Office at 503-815-3330 to arrange surrender. When you call, ask for the office manager or deputy sheriff. Inform the office manager or deputy sheriff that you are the Respondent in a restraining or stalking order that requires surrender of firearms. Follow the instructions you receive. Do not bring your guns to the Sheriff’s Office unless you have made prior arrangements with the office manager or deputy sheriff. If the office manager or deputy sheriff is not available, leave a detailed message and include your name, your telephone numbers, and the court case number. You will be contacted to make an appointment. If you do not receive a call back within two hours, call again. You must bring a copy of the court order to the Sheriff’s Office along with your guns. When you arrive at the Sheriff Office, keep your unloaded guns locked inside your vehicle – in the trunk if possible. Report to the Sheriff’s Office front window located in the lobby, give them a copy of the court order and inform them the guns are in your vehicle. The deputy sheriff or office manager will tell you what to do next. A representative of the Sheriff’s Office will sign the “Proof of Firearms Transfer” form. You must attach this form to your Declaration prior to filing it with the Court and the Tillamook County District Attorney’s office. Surrender to law enforcement must occur within 24 hours of the deadline explained above.

3. If you own firearms and wish to transfer your firearms to a third party rather than surrender them to law enforcement, check the appropriate boxes and sign the form and file it with the Court and Tillamook County District Attorney’s Office. In addition, the third party must sign the “Proof of Firearms Transfer” form and the “Third Party Recipient’s Declaration of Firearms Receipt” form. You must attach these two forms to your Declaration prior to filing it with the Court and Tillamook County District Attorney’s Office.

The third party must be approved by the Tillamook’s County Sheriff’s Office via an Oregon State Police background check as legally entitled to possess firearms. If the third party passes the background check you will be given an OSP background check number that you must write on both forms. If you choose this option, you must immediately call the Tillamook County Sheriff’s Office to arrange for this transfer. Transfer to a third party must occur within 24 hours of the deadline explained above.

4. If you own firearms and wish to transfer your firearms to a licensed gun dealer rather than surrender them to law enforcement or a third party, check the appropriate boxes and sign the form and file it with the Court and Tillamook County District Attorney’s Office. In addition, the licensed gun dealer must sign the “Proof of Firearms Transfer” form. This transfer form must be attached to your declaration prior to filing it with the Court and the Tillamook County District Attorney’s Office. Transfer to a licensed gun dealer must occur within 24 hours of the deadline explained above.
